

CONWELL-EGAN

CATHOLIC HIGH SCHOOL

Why Choose CEC?

Conwell-Egan Catholic High School has been a vital piece of the educational landscape of Lower Bucks County for more than 60 years, with over 24,000 graduates. Our students walk in the doors as young learners and leave as graduates prepared to be leaders in their communities and academic fields of study.

What Sets Us Apart?

Center for Student Leadership (CSL)

The Center for Student Leadership provides one-of-a-kind programs that both challenge and reward CEC students. Students are matched with professional internship opportunities, learn from executive mentors, and have more opportunities than ever before to engage with campus life and positively impact their communities.

Through the Center for Student Leadership, students:

- Build a network of future colleagues, employers, and community leaders
- Learn how to lead in a complex, technology-driven world
- Improve career and college readiness
- Explore high-end endeavors that coincide with the curriculum

Arts

CEC's Fine Arts program is proud to offer opportunities in various areas of visual and performing arts. These opportunities include:

- Scholarships for visual arts, instrumental music, and vocal music through the Dahaner Lynch Family Foundation
- Submissions in local, statewide, and national art shows and competitions
- Connections to professional art and music summer and weekend programs
- Acting workshops with local and professional actors
- Participation in honor choirs, bands, and orchestras at the Archdiocesan level
- Three theatrical productions, including a musical and a haunted house
- Solo musical performance opportunities in the school and in the community

EAST

Education Accelerated by Service and Technology: A project-based, service-learning class in which students work with partners using advanced technological tools to identify and address societal needs. This program encourages invaluable critical thinking and problem-solving skills.

Athletics

We encourage our athletes to develop ambition, school spirit, and good sportsmanship, both on and off the field. Our coaches and staff strive to promote academic success by upholding athletes to maintain their grades in the classroom as well. By cultivating leadership skills, and promoting self-confidence, we aim to shape the character of a true champion.
